

Tigo Welcomes Joan C. Conley to Board of Directors

July 13, 2021

Company investing in growth through the addition of corporate governance expertise

July 13, 2021, Campbell, Calif. – Tigo Energy, Inc., the solar industry's leading Flex MLPE (Module Level Power Electronics) supplier, today announced the addition of Joan C. Conley to the Company's Board of Directors. As a former member of the Nasdaq leadership team, Conley brings expertise as an advisor to public company leadership teams and Boards on the design, development, and execution of corporate governance and ESG programs.

Conley spent nineteen years as Senior Vice President and Corporate Secretary at Nasdaq, Inc. She was responsible for the Nasdaq Global Corporate Governance Program, the Nasdaq Global Ethics and Corporate Compliance Program, and the Nasdaq Educational Foundation. Her investor engagement experience and governance insight have earned her global recognition as a leader in corporate governance and ESG matters, and her passion for entrepreneurial companies culminated in establishing the Nasdaq Entrepreneurial Center. Conley served as Vice President and Corporate Secretary at Nasdaq, Inc.'s predecessor company, NASD (now FINRA), for eight years.

"Joan brings a necessary component of corporate governance to the already strong Tigo Energy board," stated Zvi Alon, chairman and CEO, of Tigo Energy. "Her leadership and experience are precisely what Tigo needs as we continue to grow in 2021 and beyond."

"Working with entrepreneurs like Zvi has been my passion for many years," said Ms. Conley. "Having spent my time at Nasdaq helping hundreds of companies grow, I am ecstatic at the opportunity to help a renewable energy leader, like Tigo Energy, in the areas of shareholder engagement and corporate governance."

Conley currently serves on the board of EJV Acquisition Corp. ("EJFA") and earned a BA from Dominican University and an MS from Loyola University of Chicago. She is currently a member of the Society of Corporate Governance Professionals, the Economic Club of Washington D.C., and a founding and former member of the Advisory Board of the Harvard Law School Corporate Governance Forum.
