

Tigo Energy Announces Full Repayment of $50 Million Convertible Promissory Note

December 17, 2025

Repayment of Convertible Promissory Note removes January 2026 maturity, eliminates potential equity overhang and strengthens balance sheet

LOS GATOS, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 17, 2025-- Tigo Energy, Inc. (NASDAQ: TYGO) ("Tigo"), a leading provider of intelligent solar and energy software solutions, today announced that it has repaid in full all outstanding principal and accrued interest under its 5.0% Convertible Promissory Note in the aggregate principal amount of $50.0 million (the "Convertible Promissory Note") issued to L1 Energy Capital Management S.a.r.l. (L1 Energy). Tigo used cash on its balance sheet to repay that Convertible Promissory Note and has no outstanding debt maturities following such repayment.

"The repayment represents an important milestone for Tigo's balance sheet and capital structure," said Bill Roeschlein, Chief Financial Officer of Tigo. "By eliminating our $50 million convertible note ahead of its January 2026 maturity, we have removed a significant potential equity overhang, simplified our capital structure and improved our ability to focus on driving profitable growth in 2026."

About Tigo Energy

Founded in 2007, Tigo Energy, Inc. (Nasdaq: TYGO) is a worldwide leader in the development and provider of smart hardware and software solutions that enhance safety, increase energy yield, and lower operating costs of residential, commercial, and utility-scale solar systems. Tigo combines its Flex MLPE (Module Level Power Electronics) and solar optimizer technology with intelligent, cloud-based software capabilities for advanced energy monitoring and control. Tigo MLPE products maximize performance, enable real-time energy monitoring, and provide code-required rapid shutdown at the module level. The company also develops and manufactures products such as inverters and battery storage systems for the residential solar-plus-storage market.
